WHAT'S NEW IN MINDMANAGER 11 FOR MAC

Digital Architect

Reinvent the way you use MindManager with new background objects and map-making capabilities. Customize existing templates with shapes, swim lanes and dividers to clarify relationships and accountability. Or create whole new structures to organize and understand your world. You have free rein over the way your map looks, the story it tells about your business, and the results it helps you achieve.

- Create custom business process models and strategic plans that are beautiful, meaningful and easy to execute on
- Visualize a plan, proposal or your entire business in new ways that can expose risks, highlight opportunities and reveal unexpected new paths to goals
- Add logos, headlines, images and design elements for a branded look and feel

Expanded Template Library

Take our new background objects to the next level with more than a dozen inspired NEW and improved templates that help you see ideas, plans and possibilities in ways that empower more informed thinking, smarter decisions and better outcomes.

- NEW Venn, onion and swim lane diagrams give you a clearer understanding of relationships and intersections
- NEW customizable matrices empower you to correlate ideas and quickly assess risk, reward, value, urgency, priority and more
- Enrich diagrams leveraging the full breadth of MindManager features and functions to create robust 3D portraits of concepts, strategies and plans

Interactive Presentation Export

The latest evolution of the HTML5 Interactive Map Export introduces a new level of polish, professionalism, and impact into the viewing experience. The program maps to present the content you want recipients to see, the way you want them to see it, with clear, simple controls that make navigation effortless for map pros and novices alike, and keep them focused on your map's substance, not structure.

- Customizable Presentation Mode allows you to create a unique experience for each recipient
- Maps can be viewed and navigated as easily as PowerPoint, removing the barriers between your content and your audience
- Recipients can also access and control presentation settings, to easily share and evangelize maps within their organizations and networks

Publisher

Some maps are too good to keep to yourself. Our new Publish tool lets you quickly and easily share maps others to learn from, be inspired by and build on.

- The fastest, easiest and most convenient way to share MindManager content
- Embed maps directly into blog posts or share on Facebook, Twitter, LinkedIn and more
- Viewable by anyone with a web connection and browser -- no license necessary*

Note: Publish capabilities, as well as data storage location, are both controllable for MindManager Enterprise customers.*

Multiple Topic Links

Enrich map topics with multiple external links, for instant access to all the resources that give support and context to your map content.

View Link Titles

Clear, concise hyperlink text show the destination page title, or your own custom wording, so everyone knows exactly where they're going, before they click.

Map Roll Up

Pull together and summarize selected data from other maps into a single dashboard map that keeps key information visible, up-to-date and top-of-mind.

Manage Tasks

Track task effort, task milestones, calculate summary tasks using task roll-ups, manage task dependencies and utilize a project calendar to track working days.

Multiple Tabs

Quickly switch between diagrams by merging them into a single tabbed application view. Drag tabs to reorder diagrams or open them in separate windows.

Topic Count

See how many subtopics a main topic contains without having to expand it, for an immediate sense of its depth and detail.

Redesigned Interface

Add detail to topics with speed and ease, thanks to a single-layer menu and sidebar task pane that put your most-used features at your fingertips.
